

MOUNT BALDY WINTER ZEN SANGHA SEMINAR

The Mt. Baldy Zen Center would like to announce a Sangha Seminar for December 13th- 15th.

We will again balance the formal structure and elements of Rinzai practice with the study and discussion of topics relevant to our practice.

We will have three guest teachers for the duration of the seminar:

~Paula Arai, Louisiana State University, a specialist on Women's Practice in Japanese Sōtō Zen

~Michel Mohr, University of Hawaii, a specialist on the history of Rinzai Zen from 1600 to the present

~Kendo Hal Roth, Brown University, a specialist on Classical Daoism and Contemplative Studies

The study portion in the daily schedule each day will focus on one topic:

~Rinzai Zen in Japan from 1600 to the present;

~Sōtō Zen in Japan from 1600 to the present; Women's Practice in Sōtō Zen

~ The teaching of Jōshū Rōshi from About Tathāgata Zen

COST: $350.00

Please plan to arrive by the evening of December 12th For registration information, please contact: office@mbzc.org

December 16: Optional Sangha Gathering

Oral History of our Sangha
Sharing Ideas for Daily Practice
$50 Donation Appreciated

